Some Reminders to Help You Use Moodle

- After you have logged in to Moodle, you need to click the "turn on editing" button to make any change in the weeks.
- You can check all the new additions to the week by switching your role to student using the switch role function.
- •If you do not want your new additions to be visible to students, you can hide them by clicking and closing the eye next to these added entries.
- You can access language options by clicking the course settings button.
- •In order to attract students' attention, you can make your course page more colorful using the themes in the course settings part.
